

Student Name: Julia DeBlasio

Project Title: Sachuest point wildlife refuge explainer video

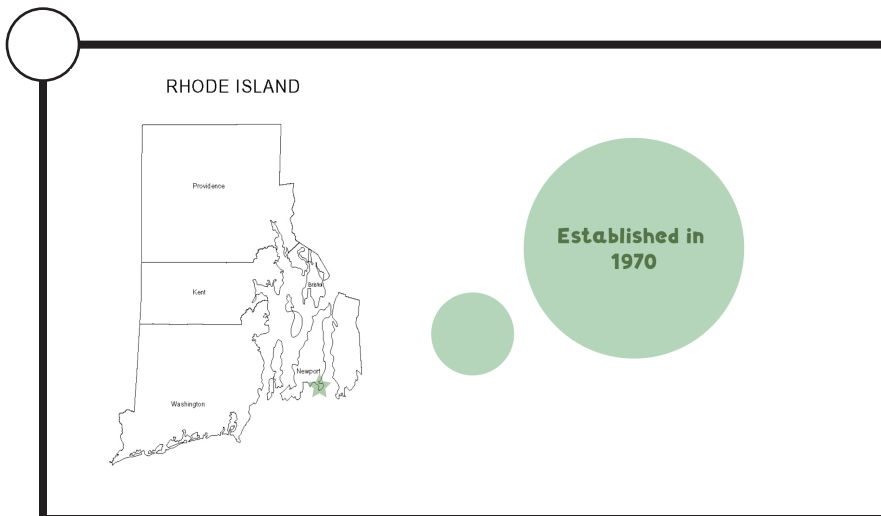

VIDEO

AUDIO

NOTES: grass/trees will sway; title will pop into screen

Protecting and providing essential homes for thousands of species and access to outdoor adventure is extremely important. Sachuest point national wildlife refuge is one of five national wildlife refuges in Rhode Island.

NOTES: this will show a map of rhode island showing where it is located. Bubbles pop up when it is established

They are located in middle town, rhode island, established in 1970.

Student Name: Julia DeBlasio

Project Title: Sachuest point wildlife refuge explainer video

VIDEO

AUDIO

They are a home of 242 acres for migrating birds, deer, rabbits and many more

NOTES: animals will come into scene ones named clean our oceans

prevent waste

planting

The system is established to serve a purpose that targets the conservation of native species dependent on its lands and waters.

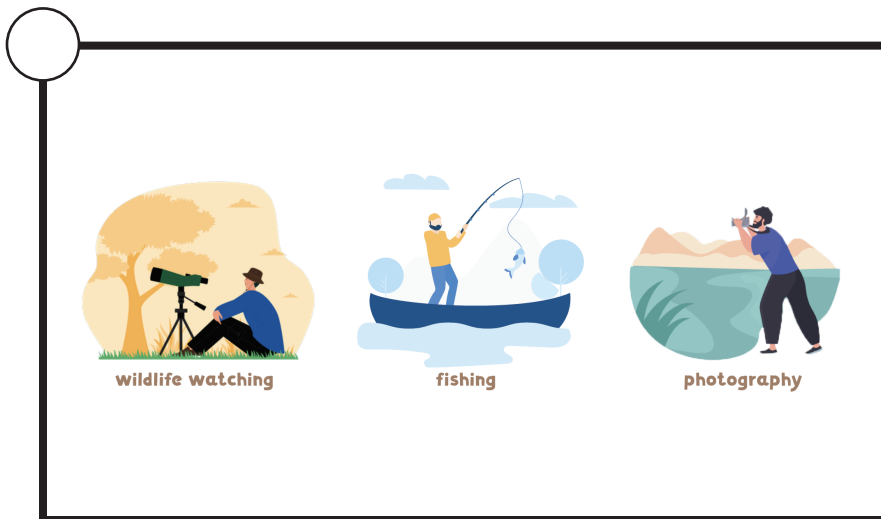

NOTES: 3 ways to conserve native species; each will be animated

Student Name: Julia DeBlasio

Project Title: Sachuest point wildlife refuge explainer video

VIDEO

AUDIO

some facility activities include fishing, wildlife watching, and photography

NOTES: 3 activities will be animated in their own ways

You are also able to enjoy different wildlife trails to walk through. Some include the flint point loop trail and the ocean view loop trail.

NOTES: will animate and show the two different trails/ land vs ocean

Student Name: Julia DeBlasio

Project Title: Sachuest point wildlife refuge explainer video

VIDEO

AUDIO

To find out more or to help out visit www.fps.gov or call 401. 619. 2680

NOTES: end of video will have website and number to fine out more informtation